ON THE CAPE SHORE.

Canadian Cruisers Closely Watch- ing American Seiners.

One Vessel Got a Good Haul Recently.

A Halifax, N. S., dispatch says [that] the Canadian fisheries protection fleet is helping the shore fishermen by its vigilance. Mackerel are plentiful all along the coast from Cape Sable to Louisburg, and the fish are keeping within the three-mile limit, and, therefore, out of reach of the American seiners on the coast. Once, however, a great school outside the limit was discovered, and as a result one American vessel took 270 barrels about six miles off Liverpool. Government boats are kept busy, and it is impossible for the Americans to get within the line. The cruisers watching the Americans are the Kingfisher, Curlew, Constance, Acadia, Osprey and La Canadienne.

The captain and crew of the Halifax schooner Lottie May secured a fine catch of mackerel on Tuesday morning about six miles off of Sambro which were brought to Halifax and sold to Watson's fish market. There were 13,632 fish in the lot, which required almost 150 barrels to hold them. The Lynch Brothers also made a haul which were sold to the successors of Fader & Co.

Six hundred barrels of fresh mackerel were received at Boston from Halifax, N. S., on Friday.

The draggers struck mackerel off Race Point Thursday night, one boat landing 700 fish at Provincetown on Friday.

Fresh mackerel are bringing 9 cents apiece for large and 4 1-2 cents for mediums at Boston to-day.

RECORD STOCK.

Sch. Elector's Fare Brings Over Ten Thousand Dollars.

HAD 300,700 POUNDS SALT COD.

Stock Is Largest Ever Made on Spring Bank Trip.

Sch. Elector, Capt. Orlando Vanamberg, weighed off 300,700 pounds of salt cod as the result of her recent trawl bank trip. On this big fare, the enormous stock of $10,079.82 was made.

This is the largest stock ever made on a May trip of salt cod in the history of the fisheries of this port, and is also one of the largest stocks ever made in the salt bank cod fishery. Some vessels which have made one long trip and come home in the fall of the year have exceeded this stock, but for a spring trip, it has never been approached.

Capt. Vanamberg has yet the best of the fishing season ahead of him and will doubtless secure another large fare before the season closes. He always had an enviable record for large trips and big stocks, having been for years one of the acknowledged leaders of the salt bank fleet, but this season bids fair to exceed his past efforts.
